

GLOSSARY

Admission for 2 &amp; Parking	Single day admission tickets for two people and parking for one vehicle in a Carlisle Events parking lot (location varies by event).
Admission Ticket	Single day admission for one person. (This is for a guest/spectator, not for showfield.)
Anymotive	Designated vending area during Fall Carlisle where anything transportation-related can be sold such as motorcycles, ATVs, boats, etc.
Autocross (see also Drifting and Real Street Shootout)	A driving activity that takes place on the track. Autocross is where drivers navigate their vehicles through a mini-roadcourse, that is defined by traffic cones, in an attempt to complete it in as short amount of time possible without hitting any cones.
Automotive Flea Market (see also Swap Meet)	Vending area where goods or services are sold – must be at least 80% automotive. Most outdoor vending spaces are on grass and are 10 feet (frontage) by 30 feet (depth). Prices vary by event.
Awards	Awards are given to winners of various contests and showfield participants.
Burnout	An activity that is held at the grandstand. Requirements: the vehicle must be registered for the showfield, the owner must show their valid driver's license and proof of insurance when registering at Guest Services.
Camping	Available at all events except Truck Nationals. RVs, travel trailers and tents are allowed. It is primitive/dry camping - no hookups. Two bath houses are available on the fairgrounds. Prices and locations vary by event.
Car Corral	Designated area where vehicles only (no parts, etc.) are for sale by individuals or vehicle dealers. All vehicles must be in running condition, cannot be on trailers and must match the event (i.e. a Ford may not be for sale at the Chrysler show but any brand may be sold at Spring and Fall). Carlisle Events is not involved with the sale of the vehicle. Most spaces are on grass, some are gravel and are 10 feet (frontage) by 20 feet (depth). Prices vary by event.
Celebrity Choice Award	Winners are chosen by celebrity judges. Applies to: Ford, GM, Chrysler and Corvette shows.
Celebrity Judge	People who are invited to the Celebrity Luncheon are Celebrity Judges. They choose a vehicle on the showfield to receive a Celebrity Choice Award. Their choice is based on their own criteria and the vehicle must not be chosen by another judge nor part of a special display. Winners of this award are included on the Winner's List.

Celebrity Luncheon	An invitation-only luncheon held during the Ford, GM, Chrysler and Corvette shows. Invitees are asked to be Celebrity Judges (see above), they receive a meal and gift.
Chip's Choice Display	A display of Corvettes in Building T during Corvettes at Carlisle every year, usually fitting a theme. Named after Carlisle Events' late company co-founder, Chip Miller, who hand-picked the Corvettes for the display.
Chip's Circle	A type of Fun Field registration at Corvettes at Carlisle. Registered participants receive parking in a designated area, meals and tickets to the CMAF dinner (held during the event). There are a limited number of Chip's Circle registrations available.
CMAF	The Chip Miller Amyloidosis Foundation was formed when Carlisle Events' co-founder, Chip Miller, passed away from the little-known disease in 2004.
Cruise-In	Designated area at Winter AutoFest Lakeland (Florida) for participants to park their vehicle. There is no fee for the car and the driver, but passengers must pay daily admission. Cruise-In participants may attend one, two or all three days of the event.
Drifting (see also Autocross and Real Street Shootout)	A driving activity that takes place on the track. Drifting is a technique where the driver purposely oversteers with loss of traction while maintaining control and countersteering.
Event Pass	Admission for one person that's good for every day of an event. (Does not include parking.) Available to purchase at every ticket booth.  For vendors and their staff that park outside the fairgrounds, free event passes are available only at the Will Call booth (beside Gate 3). Vendors are allotted two event passes for their first space and one pass for each additional space with a maximum of five passes.
Expo Center	The Carlisle Expo Center is a building located about a block outside Gate 3 at 100 K Street. It is a Carlisle Events property used for Carlisle Auctions and rented to outside promoters for their events.
Featured Vehicle Display	These vehicles are on display every day of the event in a designated area such as a building or tent. Some of the vehicles fit a specific theme or anniversary. To be part of the display, an application on our website (CarlisleFeatures.com) must be completed, then applicants are notified if their vehicle is selected. There is no fee to be in the display, and we provide free admission and parking for the vehicle owner and a guest. Credentials are available to participants upon arrival in the showfield office in the Registration Building.
Fun Field (see also Showfield)	Designated area at an event (Corvettes at Carlisle and Winter AutoFest Lakeland) for show car parking. Some areas on the Fun Field are reserved for clubs to park together but it is mainly non-reserved parking for all registered show cars. "Fun Field" was coined by Chip Miller, Carlisle Events co-founder, because he wanted everyone to have fun at a non-competitive car show.

Gate-N-Go Deadline	This is a showfield registration deadline for participants to receive their credentials in the mail so they can drive in the gate without stopping at the Registration Building. If someone registers after the Gate-N-Go deadline, they must stop at the showfield office and pick up their credentials before driving in the gate.
Guest	An individual attending but not participating in an event (i.e. not a vendor or showfield participant). Must pay gate admission and parking fee.
Guest Services (Building)	This building is located next to the Grandstand and contains the information desk, goody bag pick-up for showfield participants, registration for activities and contests, hand cart rental and more.
Hand Carts	Large, sturdy, metal carts to haul merchandise are available to rent at Guest Services. The borrower's driver's license is held until the cart is returned. Donations to the Chip Miller Amyloidosis Foundation are encouraged and appreciated.
